Riddle

Know All Men by these presents, that we Benjamin Thorp Peter Cook and David Riddle, all of the County of Monmouth in the State of New Jersey, are affinly bound unto Joseph Bloomfield Esquire, Ordinary Pro Surrogate General of the said State, in the sum of Five hundred Dollars, Money of the United States to be paid unto the said Ordinary, his successors or assigns: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated the sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound Benjamin Thorp, Administrator of all and singular the goods, Chattels and credits of Ezekiel Hulse, late of the County of Monmouth deceased, left unadministered by Magdalene ~~Hulse~~ who is also deceased, do makes or causes to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, left unadministered as aforesaid, which shall so shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Benjamin Thorp, or into the hands of any other person or persons for the said Benjamin Thorp, and the same so made do exhibit or cause to be exhibited in to the Surrogate Office of the County of Monmouth, about four months after the expiration of six Calender Months from the date of the above written obligations; and the same goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased left unadministered, ~~shall be administered~~ at the time of the death of the aforesaid Magdalene Hulse, or which shall any time after, shall come to the hands or possession of the said Benjamin Thorp, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for the said Benjamin Thorp, do well and truly administer according to law; and further aid make or cause to be made just and true account of the administration within 15 twelve Calendare months from the date of the above written obligation, and all the rest and residue of the said goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said Administrators, the same being first examined and allowed of by the judges of the Orphans Court of the County, whose competent authority shall deliver and pay unto such persons or persons respectively, who is, are, or shall by law be entitled to receive the same. And if it shall appear, that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the executor or executors therein named, or any other person or persons do exhibit the same into the said Surrogates Office, making request to have it allowed and approved; if the said Benjamin Thorp, being thereunto required, do render and deliver the said letters of administration (approbation) of such testament being first had and made to the said Court, then the above obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to be and remains its full scope and virtue.

Sealed and delivered, Benjamin Thorp in the presence of -

P. A. Brockmorton Peter Cook
